Come with me and walk a way
Down along the garden path
And see the modest violet.
Breathe in the sweet fragrance
And remember your childhood.
You will think of your mother
For the violet is mother's own flower.

We grow only the choicest of the many types and varieties of violets--those outstanding for form, beauty and fragrance.

1. ROYAL ELK) (sun or shade) These three large
2. ROYAL ROBE) purple violets are so similar in
3. VICTORY) size and appearance we list them together. They are without question the largest and finest of the single violets in the world. They have large fragrant blossoms on long stout stems. A very prolific bloomer--ideal for corsages.

PLANTING INSTRUCTIONS

When your plants arrive, if they seem wilted, immerse them in water, tops and all, letting them soak two or three hours. If they seem fresh just dip them in water and plant at once. Straighten out the roots and plant full depth, being sure to firm the soil around them. Then soak thoroughly with water. Violets like moist soil enriched with humus. If your winters are severe, mulch with coarse leaves or similar material.
